

“IT’S CANCER.” NOW WHAT?

Whether you’ve just heard those words or you’re halfway through treatment, cancer has probably turned your world upside down. We get it.

Getting the right information, advice and support can really help. Canteen is in your corner. We can put you in touch with a counsellor, help you access a clinical trial and you can also connect with other young people going through similar stuff at canteenconnect.org.au.

Specialist treatment and support for young people with cancer aged 15-25 is provided by the Youth Cancer Services based in major hospitals throughout Australia. youthcancer.com.au stay connected to your school and friends even if you're stuck in hospital or at home.

Robots Program:

Education and Career Support:

get expert advice on keeping up with study or work as well as improving your job readiness skills.

SPACE online program:

connect with other young cancer patients and develop coping skills to manage the impact of cancer on your life. Canteen has a range of other events and programs too.

Our values and commitments

We are guided by our values and our commitment to ensure that everyone at Canteen feels respected, included and safe.

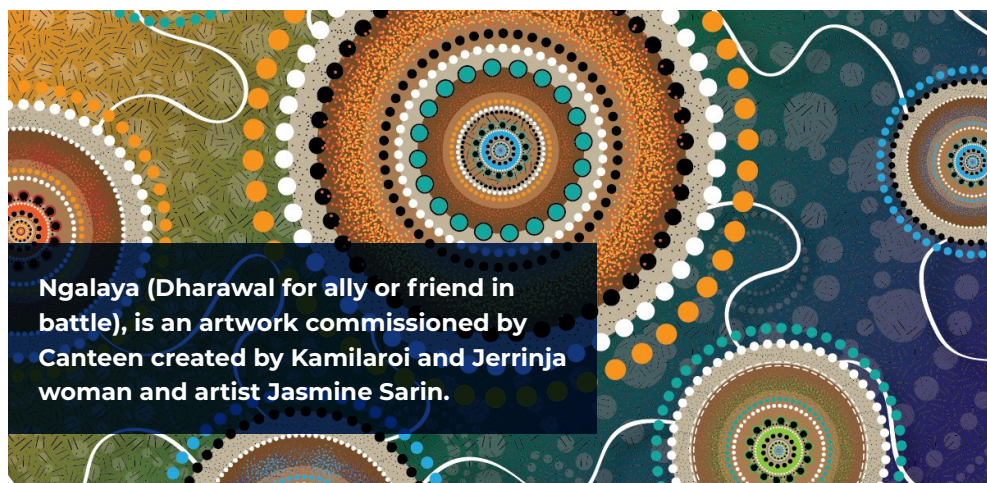

Diversity and Inclusion

Cancer doesn't discriminate and neither do we. We welcome people with diverse sexualities, gender identities and intersex variations and from all cultures, backgrounds and abilities.

Acknowledgement of Country

Canteen acknowledges Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as Australia's First Peoples and sovereign Custodians of this land. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging. We are committed to providing inclusive and appropriate support for First Nations young people, their kin and community impacted by cancer. First Nations peoples are respectfully advised this resource may contain images, names or stories of people who have passed away.
