SUPPORTING ADOLESCENT AND YOUNG ADULT SIBLINGS OF CANCER PATIENTS: THE FAMILY CONTEXT

4. Strohm, K., Too important to ignore: Siblings of children with special needs. Australian e-Journal for the Advancement of Mental Health 2008. 7(2).
5. McDonald, F., Patterson, P., Butow P., & White K., Adolescent and Young Adult Siblings of Cancer Patients: Understanding Unmet Psychosocial Needs & Psychological Distress, in 43rd Congress of the International Society for Paediatric Oncology 2011; Aotea Centre in Auckland, New Zealand.

35. Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists, Addressing the needs of siblings of children with disability or chronic illness, 2011: Melbourne.

38. Division of Oncology, Surviving Cancer Competently Intervention Program, in Intervention Manual, 2008 Center for Pediatric Traumatic Stress.
